A Word from Brad ~

Is Normal What We Want?

The definition for normal is usual, typical, or expected.

One of the first words that I learned how to say in Russia, while serving as a missionary there, was the word for normal: “normalna”. It was a word that was close to the English, was easy to remember, and meant approximately the same thing. It means that everything is okay or normal.

I have heard a lot of people say that they are ready to go back to normal life. Life without masks or social distancing.

I was thinking about going back to normal. Was normal all that great? What does the Bible have to say about normal life? The answer: not much.

If you can look at Jesus’ 3 years of ministry and could put it to football terms, would you say Jesus was mainly playing offense or defense? Was he like the quarterback, calling the plays, or was he on the defense, reacting to those on the offense? I think most of us would say that he was mainly playing offense. He had the plays for the day-to-day events. There is almost nothing written about Jesus’ average, normal, predictable days, but tons written about his miracles, his conversations with his disciples and unbelievers, and of course his teachings.

I think we also need to be on the offense, moving forward and advancing the gospel.

Now, let’s look at Moses’ life.

Think a minute about what he did and what God did through Moses. What events come to your mind? Maybe his birth, when he killed the Egyptian, talking to Pharaoh, leading the Children of Israel out of Egypt, and crossing the Red Sea, or receiving the 10 Commandments on Mt. Sinai.

How many of you thought about the 40 years he spent with Jethro in Midian? It was quiet, predictable, comfortable, and easy because he knew what was going to happen every day. It was a normal life.

Before the pandemic, you could probably say that your life was fairly quiet, predictable, comfortable, and easy. It was normal.

Do you know what is written about Moses’ 40 years of normal, typical, predictable life? Part of one verse. Not even a full verse is dedicated to those 40 predictable years in Midian. 4 words.

A Word from Brad ~ (cont.) Exodus 2:23a says, "During that long period".

Then God changed the predictable, normal, day to day life when he talked to Moses at the burning bush. His life suddenly went from normal to exciting, scary, and being totally dependent on God for direction. Moses found himself having to rely on the Lord for everything.

The greatest things in life can happen when we understand we are totally dependent on God. When I was 28 years old and a new missionary to Russia, I didn't know what was going to happen on any given day, and I just tried to rely totally on God. I saw 23 college students accept Christ over the period of 9 months.

Normal is not all it's cracked up to be. Let's shoot for walking by faith and depending on God to lead and guide us. We just might see a harvest.

Blessings ~ Brad

Penn State~New Life: Eric Reiber

New Life at Penn State has been back with students on campus since the middle of February. The campus is still affected by restrictions with Covid and so we have worked diligently to provide content both in person and through Zoom meetings to be most effective. One consequence of the restrictions has been a lower student enrollment in State College this semester. Many of the students we connected to last semester did not come back to campus this spring, meaning we are figuring out how to minister to them from a distance. Please pray for our group to continue disciple students faithfully that God has put into our sphere of influence.

This spring we began a new initiative amongst the group that has created some good traction. We have declared every Friday to be, "Do Good Friday." We want our students to live out the concept of God blessing us to be a blessing. To uphold Ephesians 2:10, that we were created to do good works, which God planned for us to walk in. We know that we are saved by our faith. In conjunction with that, as believers, we want students to live out Matthew 5:16, "In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." We have heard about students giving large tips to finding ways to serve their roommates. Spring Semester started off a few weeks ago with our good friend, Zoom. Fortunately, we are now allowed to gather in person, and had our first meeting on campus a few Wednesdays ago.
