News from our Churches:

Thompstontown Baptist Church held their NAMB Backpack-Giveaway on Friday, August 27th in their local community park. They asked church families to donate school supplies and filled all the backpacks prior to the event.

They also provided hotdogs, face painting & salvation bracelets for the community as well. They gave out approximately 35 backpacks that evening and served 80 hotdogs! The community was extremely grateful for the backpacks and some parents had tears in their eyes when thanking those involved.

Caleb Snook shared: "Our church family also enjoyed the event! This was our first outreach event since Covid, and people enjoyed serving our community and the Lord!"

Red Land Baptist Church participated with WMU in Christmas in August. They sent 35 $10.00 gift cards to the New Awakening church in Belview Washington to use with their children's and adult ministries.

Mt Moriah Missionary Baptist Church hosted its annual Church in the Park on August 22nd during a torrential rainstorm. They came together for worship and then lunch. The pavilion flooded but they stayed to eat and fellowship.

Central Baptist Church: Participated in Ox Roast, a local fair September 3rd through 6th. They made many contacts and were able to hand out many Bibles along with church information.

Central Baptist also held a Block Party on September 11th. Pastor John Buhr shared: "I feel it was a big success on many levels. It helped to promote the church in the community and let everyone know that we are back to regular meetings. It got our name out into the community through a week-long Facebook ad and by putting up posters. It also helped in that some of the local business donated prizes. It was well attended by many people from the community. We also had families that were regularly attending before COVID, and they came out to the block party. Finally, I feel it was a success because we had many people from the church step up to help out and there was a lot of fellowship before, during and after the event."

A Word from Brad ~

A Call to Courage

I'm so excited that we will gather together on October 16th at our KBA Fall Celebration. It will be a celebration of this last year. God has led us through the pandemic and has taught us to trust and rely on Him. Even when all of our preconceived ideas of what church should be was thrown out the window, He led us into new and unfamiliar territory. God is Good!

At our KBA Fall Celebration we will be introducing new pastors who have recently moved to the area as well hearing testimonies from several of our KBA pastors. We will have special music from a professional musical couple from South Carolina, and Mark Mirza is returning this year to lead us in prayer. We will have a time of discussion and seeking where God is leading us in the future.

The KBA Fall Celebration will be a great time that pastors can connect with other pastors and fellowship together. We can also come together and plan for the future. We need each other and are stronger together. We will need each other as we move forward into the future. It is likely that the church will start to face various hostilities and persecution in the coming years.

In Biblical times, the Israelites blew a shofar, a ram's horn, whose sound is said to rouse the soul. It is a battle cry, a mournful cry, or a symbolic "wake-up call. In these last days, we need to symbolically blow the shofar in getting ready for the future battles we will encounter. This is a call to courage: To Be Strong and Courageous.

Many might think the antidote for fear is courage, but it's really faith. Just as fear is contagious, faith too is contagious. As I listen to sermons and testimonies about faithful saints, I'm encouraged and emboldened to live for Christ, no matter the cost.

Join us on October 16th at Red Land Baptist Church for a day of celebration and encouragement. We will have a prayer breakfast for the pastors at 9am and a separate prayer breakfast for the pastor's wives, also at 9am. Our regular session starts at 10am and will conclude by 1pm with lunch to follow. See you soon! ~ Brad

New Life at Penn State: Autumn Miller

The Involvement Fair took place on a crisp, 91-degree day this year. Students seemed eager to talk, connect, and sign up for as many clubs as possible. We met over 50 students at our New Life table and had a lot of fun meeting so many new (sweaty) faces.

This semester has definitely been extremely unique because it's the first time Penn State is running everything in person for the first time in a year and a half. I observed that students moved in excited and ready to get involved in things, because involvement was extremely restricted previously. However, by day two of classes, the energy shifted dramatically; students were already feeling exhausted, over-committed, and emotionally/physically drained. For example, on our first Tuesday night New Life meeting, our student leader shared a short testimony that included the statement "It's been a hard semester for me so far...", which was shocking to hear, because the semester had just begun. But that has been the truth I've heard from most students across the board! We hope that New Life will be a place where students can find rest and peace this year, more than ever.

REMEMBER: To bring a box or two of breakfast bars to the Annual Meeting on October 16th. They will be used by New Life on campus with students.

UPCOMING BRN EVENT:

The annual business session and gathering of the Baptist Resource Network will be Tuesday, October 5th, at the Sheraton Harrisburg Hershey Hotel. The meeting begins at 9:00 am and ends at 5:30 pm with dinner to follow. The "Accelerate Conference" will feature author, Will Mancini, as the keynote speaker. There will be breakout sessions, exhibits and more. Go to: brnunited.org/accelerate/ to register.
