A WORD FROM BRAD ~

Refugees Galore in the Bible as well as Today

Have you ever been a refugee? Probably not. For a moment, think about what your life would be like if you lost your house, your job, all of your possessions, and possibly loved ones in a matter of days. When I was in Poland last week on a mission trip, I heard story after story from Ukrainian refugees that had lost everything. In some ways, we have no idea what they have been through and what they are still going through.

We can't relate to refugees, yet so many people in the Bible that we read, study, and memorize actually were also in some state of exile. Here is a non-exhaustive list of Biblical characters who were on the move. Adam and Eve were kicked out of the garden, Cain became a restless wanderer on the earth, Noah left all he knew in this world, the builders of Babel were scattered over all the earth, Abraham was told to leave his country, Lot fled Sodom, Jacob fled Canaan, Joseph was sold as a slave in a different country, Moses fled to Midian, the whole nation of the Israelites moved from Egypt to the wilderness and then to the Promised Land, Naomi went to Moab with her husband, the Israelites were exiled to Babylon, and Joseph, Mary, and Jesus fled during the night to Egypt. Even God can metaphorically be described as a stranger with regard to Israel in Jeremiah 14:8.

So many people in the Bible knew very well about being exiled and being refugees, yet we can't relate to their situations. I believe that we need to have more compassion on those who are displaced and only then we will be able to relate a little bit better to many of those in the Bible, who lived in different lands than where they were born. According to Deuteronomy 10:18, God "loves the strangers."

I believe that those who have been displaced, driven from their homelands, and have lost their possessions, are more dependent on God and trust Him for all their needs more than us, who are comfortable in the predictable lives that we have.

Ukrainian refugees are coming to the states and it's our privilege to love them and help them. KBA will be helping these modern-day exiles in the months to come, and hopefully, in the process we might understand the Bible better and be able to relate to their stories. Deuteronomy 10:18-19 says, "For the Lord your God...loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing. You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt."

Brad has posted 7 videos about the mission trip to Poland on the KBA website. Please check these videos at: www.keystonebaptist.net.

Brad Horne led a team of 10 to Poland in April to minister to the Ukrainian refugees. Brad shared the Gospel with Sasha, pictured here, in the train station at the Border of Poland and Ukraine. Sasha was the only one that prayed to receive Christ during our mission trip. Brad states “I pray that God has great plans for this young man as he was headed back to Ukraine.” In this picture, Brad was going through the Roman Road with Sasha as he had already given him a New Testament in Ukrainian that Sasha is holding in his hand. KBA is on mission both here and around the world.

“Thank you to KBA churches for praying for me and our team while in the Ukraine. It was wonderful to know that you all were praying for us!”

Blessings,
Brad
